3. Methodological information
3.1. Concepts and definitions	Financial corporations engaged in lending (FCLs), classified as OFIs, are financial corporations specialising in asset financing for households and non-financial corporations. Corporations specialising in financial leasing, factoring, mortgage lending and consumer lending are included in this category as well.
3.2. Scope (scope of data, exceptions to coverage, unrecorded activity)	LB does not collect statistical information specified in the ECB guideline directly from FCLs; statistics are compiled from the aggregated information from statistical report on the activities of financial intermediation companies collected by Statistics Lithuania (data form F-03).
3.3. Classification/sectorisation	Assets and liabilities of financial corporations engaged in lending are classified into instrument categories provided below. Neither the list of individual instruments, nor their corresponding descriptions are intended to be exhaustive. The descriptions refer to the European system of accounts set up by Regulation (EU) No 549/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 May 2013 on the European system of national and
