

TOP 10 EMIs and PIs by turnover

The total amount of payment transactions equalled €97 billion (€103 billion in Q2 2022, after the elimination of one significant ex participant). The total amount of payment transactions, after the elimination of the data of one significant ex participant due to comparability, decreased by 5.8% year on year

EMI and PI customer funds

Customer funds held with the Bank of Lithuania decreased by almost a quarter, or 22 percentage points (69% of customer funds were held with the Bank of Lithuania a year ago), and amounted to €836 million

EMI and PI income from licensed activities and number of licences

Income from licensed activities amounted to €226 million, down by 40 percentage points year on year. However, following the elimination of income of Revolut Payments UAB of Q2 2022 (€191 million), a 23% growth in licence income is observed

The data provided herein excludes the EMIs and PIs that only provide the payment initiation or account information service and/or only engage in the collection of fees for utilities or other services provided on a regular basis for household needs, in the collection of fines and/or other charges to public authorities, and in the payment of social benefits, and which are required to submit only annual reports instead of quarterly ones.

Compliance with own funds requirements

Reject reports

