

TOP 10 EMIs and PIs, by turnover

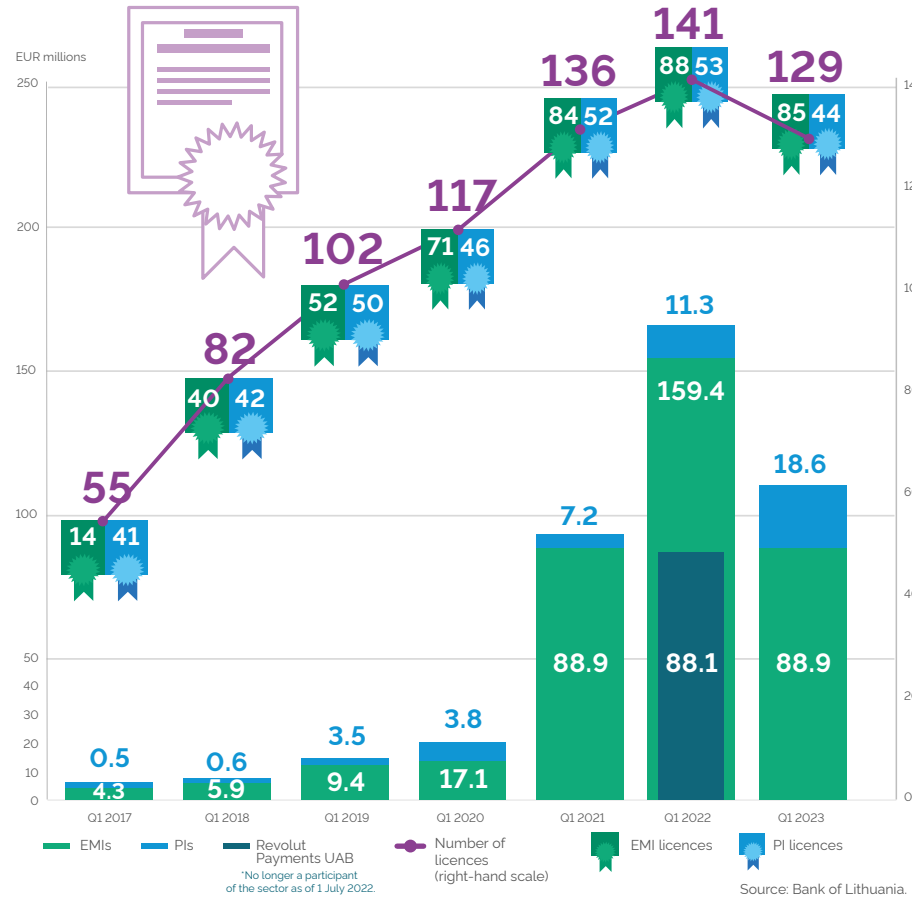

The total amount of payment transactions equalled €108 billion (€174 billion in Q1 2022), down by 38% year on year

EMI and PI customer funds

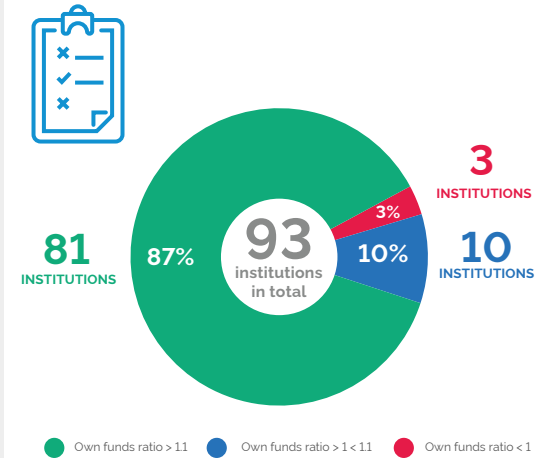

Customer funds decreased by a factor of 3, i.e. the same as customer funds after Revolut Payments left the sector (Revolut Payments held €2.2 billion with central banks in Q1 2022)

EMI and PI income from licensed activities and number of licences

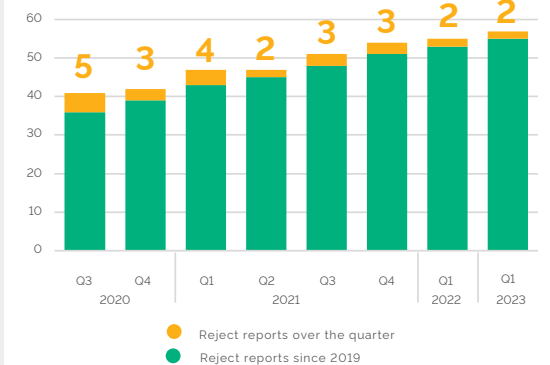

Income from licensed activities amounted to €108 million, down by 37 percentage points year on year

Compliance with own funds requirements

Reject reports

The data provided herein excludes the EMIs and PIs that only provide the payment initiation or account information service and/or only engage in the collection of fees for utilities or other services provided on a regular basis for household needs, in the collection of fines and/or other charges to public authorities, and in the payment of social benefits, and which are required to submit only annual reports instead of quarterly ones.