Deposits of Lithuanian residents with credit institutions increased

Today, the Bank of Lithuania published the monetary financial institution (MFI) balance sheet for February 2019, which shows that:

deposits of Lithuanian residents with credit institutions rose¹ by €179.1 million over the month – to €22.3 billion at the end of the month. Household², general government and financial sector³ deposits increased by €156.5 million, €76.8 million and €4.5 million respectively, while non-financial corporation deposits contracted by €58.7 million. At the end of the month, deposits from these sectors amounted to €13.6 billion, €2.0 billion, €595.4 million and €6.1 billion respectively (see Chart 1);

overnight deposits of Lithuanian households with credit institutions increased by €143.5 million, while those of non-financial corporations contracted by €11.8 million over the month, to €9.8 billion and €5.6 billion respectively;

loans granted by credit institutions to Lithuanian residents decreased by €13.6 million over the month, to €19.9 billion. Loans to Lithuanian households and the general government sector contracted by €12.6 million and €8.1 million respectively, while loans to the financial sector and non-financial corporations increased by €4.7 million and €2.4 million respectively. At the end of the month, loans to these sectors amounted to €9.7 billion, €388.9 million, €1.2 billion and €8.6 billion respectively (see Chart 2); loans for house purchase granted by credit institutions to Lithuanian households increased by €32.4 million, while loans for consumption and other purposes decreased by €4.6 million and €40.4 million respectively – to €7.8 billion, €655.5 million and €1.2 billion respectively (see Chart 3).

² The household sector consists of households and non-profit institutions serving households.

³ The financial sector consists of Lithuania's investment funds and other financial intermediaries, as well as insurance corporations and pension funds.
