

TOP 10 EMIs and PIs, by turnover

In Q1 2022, the total amount of payment transactions increased twofold compared with Q1 2021 and amounted to €173.6 billion

EMI and PI customer funds

Funds with the Bank of Lithuania

Investments in safe and liquid assets

Demand deposits with EU credit institutions

More than half of all clients' funds are held with the Bank of Lithuania, compared to a fifth a year ago

EMI and PI income from licensed activities and number of licences

Income from licensed activities amounted to €170 million and grew by 1.8 times in a year

Source: Bank of Lithuania

The data provided herein excludes EMIs and PIs that only provide payment initiation or account information services and/or only engage in the collection of fees for utilities or other services provided on a regular basis for household needs, in the collection of fines and/or other charges to public authorities, and in the payment of social benefits, and which are required to submit only annual reports instead of quarterly ones.

Compliance with own funds requirements

Own funds ratio > 1.1 Own funds ratio > 1 < 1.1 Own funds ratio < 1

Reject reports (account closure or restriction notifications)

Reject reports over a quarter

53 reject reports have been received since 2019